

For Immediate Release

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

Adelaide Fringe: Adelaide Zoo - Santos Conservation Centre (Theatrette)
20, 24-27 February; 3-6, 10-13 March 2010. 18:00 (ends 19:00).

Fall down the rabbit hole into a world of riddle and rhyme in this exciting adaptation from Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions.

Join Alice on her extraordinary journey down the rabbit hole. Delight as she takes tea with the Mad Hatter, plays croquet with the Queen of Hearts and meets, among others, the fabled Cheshire Cat, Mock Turtle and March Hare. Lewis Carroll's fantastic creations come to life in this wonderful and creative version of the children's classic, Alice in Wonderland.

With an original score, dance and audience interaction, this is a phantasmagorical journey through Wonderland, appealing to adults and children alike. The creative team includes Brydie Lee-Kennedy as Alice and Sophie Miller as the piano-playing White Rabbit. Jo Bourke and Neal Downward, collaborators on several of Tumbleweed's other productions, deftly switch between a host of charismatic characters with humour and wit.

Managed by Amanda Jessup and Brydie Lee-Kennedy, Sydney-based Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions has had two strong years touring across Australia, bringing innovative and entertaining shows to venues including Trades Hall in Melbourne and Sydney's legendary Roxbury Hotel and Bondi Pavilion. Following performances at the Melbourne International Comedy and Edinburgh Fringe Festivals, to coincide with the movie release of Alice in Wonderland, Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions now bring this timeless classic to the Adelaide Fringe.

So, are you ready to fall down the rabbit hole?

What the press said about Alice in Wonderland:

"Talented and likeable young actors... a very good game of let's pretend" - The Pun.

"A great show for both kids and adults...The Duchess' jam on morals was a highlight of the show (and maybe even the Festival). Brava!" 8/10 - The Funny Tonne, Melbourne International Comedy Festival.
