DRAGS ALOUD AT THE MOVIES

Adelaide Fringe: The Garden of Unearthly Delights - Le Cascadeur, 22:00 (ends 23:00), 1st - 13th March 2010 (not 8th)

The world premiere of Drags Aloud's latest pop-culture, pop-corn parody.

"They're wonderful, they're entertaining, they're terrific...A great, great act." - Joan Rivers

Following sell-out seasons in New York and Edinburgh, Australia's fabulously camp and deliciously funny Drags Aloud are back at the Garden of Unearthly Delights this Adelaide Fringe (1st - 13th March 2010) with another gloriously twisted comedy cabaret. You must see Drags Aloud at the Movies.

These 20th Century foxes with a difference will make you laugh and cry and as they mime and mimic their way through a score of some of Hollywood's most-beloved movies and stars. Funny, irreverent, and with more costume changes than a Kylie concert, Drags Aloud at the Movies is bucketloads of glorious pop and corn in a parody of epic proportions. It's time to move over Priscilla and make room for Drags Aloud at the Movies.

Drags Aloud is the first Australian drag show to tour internationally, including history making shows on London's West End and off-Broadway in New York. Drags Aloud dazzled audiences with their unique parody of The Sound of Music in 2007, receiving a special Director's Commendation at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival and a host of five-star reviews at their Edinburgh Fringe Festival debut. Next they demolished Sandy and Danny with their Grease Lightnin' Drag Show, again selling out at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe (Forth Radio Fringe Award 2008). Shows on London's West End and Off-Broadway followed along with a Christmas Spiegletent season in Edinburgh. Back in Australia they were invited to open for Joan Rivers on her 2009 Australian Tour, and now they're back in Adelaide with a new herd of Hollywood's sacred cows in their sights.

Drags Aloud are Amanda Monroe, Jessica James, Kris del Vayze and Linda Lamont.

MORE ABOUT DRAGS ALOUD

Drags Aloud is Australia's only professional drag ensemble to tour internationally with sell-out shows at Edinburgh's Fringe Festival, New York's Off-Broadway and London's West End. This multi-award winning troupe presents drag as comedic self satire and with a healthy dose of old fashioned glamour. With some of Australia's most dynamic and diverse drag performers, Drags Aloud continues to delight, amuse and amaze audiences and receive review accolades wherever they perform.

BIOGRAPHIES

Amanda Monroe

Amanda is an audience favourite with a comic performance style that betrays her wide-eyed innocent appearance. Amanda is the co-founder and driving force behind Drags Aloud and their continued International success. The face of the McCafe television advertisements, Amanda has featured in several film roles, including 'Strange Bedfellows' with Paul Hogan, 'The Line' and in The Kath and Kim television series.

Jessica James

Jessica is renowned for her hilarious 'dead-pan' performance style and is the powerhouse founder, costumer and creator of the Drags Aloud style and comedy approach to drag performance. Jessica has been featured in film and television, is the face of XLR8 Drinks, and was star in the award-winning Top Ten video clip, 'Do It With Madonna'.

Kris del Vayze

Kris comes from a background in performance and dance with credits in Broadway and West-end productions including 'Chorus Line', 'Anything Goes', 'Me & My Girl' and 'Grand Hotel'. The face of GLBT Tourism and featured performer in the Drags Aloud television series, Kris has an imposing command of the stage with her Nordic looks and very versatile character interpretations.

Linda Lamont

Linda's high energy performances and comic timing make her a popular performer. Linda joined Drags Aloud as 'Danny' in Grease Lightnin' Drag Show and has wowed audiences wherever she's performed. Linda is the face of the "Australian Wine in Korea" television advertisement and a featured performer on the Kath and Kim television series.
